HowGood

Find your climate-friendly foods throughout the dining hall with these icons certified by HowGood. These icons indicate if the recipe has an environmental and social impact better than a specified percentage of other foods based on HowGood's database of over 2 million products.

Menus of Change

The Menus of Change initiative (MOC) was formed in 2012 as a partnership with The Culinary Institute of America and the Harvard School of Public Health. MOC is designed to focus on engineering our menus to create a more sustainable food supply, provide delicious nutrient-dense meals for our guests, and protect and improve the health of our planet.
